1: The Master is portrayed as a businessman. The Parable of the Talents gives us a perspective of God that we don't usually hear about in modern churches on Sunday morning. In this parable, God isn't being presented as Father, Son, Holy Spirit, Savior, Friend, Creator, or Miracle-Worker. He is being portrayed as a businessman.

Question: "Did God use the 'Big Bang' to create the universe?" Answer: Prior to the twentieth century, before the Big Bang theory had been developed, philosophers and scientists debated whether the universe had a beginning. Some argued it had always existed: that it was "infinitely old." This agreed with the worldview of ancient philosophers and then-current atheism.

Question: "Is it biblical to refer to God as God the mother?" Answer: The first thing to recognize is that God does not have a body and therefore does not have gender in the technical sense. At the same time, God is consistently referred to as our heavenly Father in Scripture, never as a heavenly Mother. There are a few places in Scripture where God describes Himself in motherly terms in that ...
